

I urge you to not weaken Wisconsin's No Call List that we have been enjoying since the Governor signed last year. Once I cancel service with a business I do not want them to be allowed to turn around and harass me to do business with them again.